Submitted by: Beverly Mitchell
bmitchel@smu.edu
214-768-2796/214-768-1800

In August 2013, the ARLIS/NA Executive Board appointed the four chairs for the 43rd Annual Conference in Fort Worth, Texas.

Programming Co-chairs
• Catherine Essinger
  The University of Houston
• Lynn Wexler
  The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston
• Local Arrangements Co-chairs
  Beverly Carver
  University of Texas, Arlington
• Beverly Mitchell
  Southern Methodist University

After a site visit with Robert Kopchinski and Local Arrangements Co-chairs, in September 2013, the Omn Hotel, Fort Worth, was selected and contracted for the conference date, March 19 – 23, 2015. At the annual Texas-Mexico chapter meeting in San Antonio in November 2013, the co-chairs asked for conference committee volunteers and met briefly with these members. The roster of volunteers and contact information was submitted to Gregg Most, ARLIS/NA President, and Carole Ann Fabian, ARLIS/NA Vice President/President Elect. All committee members were added to Basecamp.

Publicity – Eric Wolf, Menil Collection, Houston
Local Development Coordinator – Samuel Duncan, Amon Carter Museum, Fort Worth
Budget Coordinator - Laura Schwartz, University of Texas, Austin
Website – Joel Pelanne, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston
Tour/Transportation Coordinator—Stephen Gassett, Kimbell Art Museum, Fort Worth
Tours/Transportation Assist – Rebecca Barham, University of Texas, Denton
Exhibits Coordinator—Alison Larson, Baylor University, Waco
Registration/Hospitality Coordinator—Selene Hinojosa, Texas State University, San Marcos
Local Guide Editor—Laura Steinbach, Texas Christian University, Fort Worth
Silent Auction/Raffle/Fundraiser Coordinator—Edward Lukasek, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston
Programming – Craig Bunch, McNay Art Museum, San Antonio and Sunyoung Park, The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston
The co-chairs also proposed a conference theme, New Frontiers on the Old Frontier, which was approved by Most and Fabian. The conference committee is currently working on a variety of tasks for the programming, special events, and fundraising.