Business Meeting, ARLIS/NA Fort Worth, Texas
March 22, 2015
Attendees: 16 present
Kasia Leousis, President, chaired the meeting. Executive Board reports and updates were given and are recorded in the minutes. New business centered on the plans for the New Orleans 2017 ARLIS/NA Annual Conference. Preliminary dates, logos and potential venues were discussed. The Bylaws revisions were also discussed and approved with suggested edits.

Southeast chapter members giving presentations at the conference are:

- Kim Collins – poster, Archive Research Program for Graduate Students
- Heather Gendron – moderator, Photographers’ Self-Publishing: Contexts for Collecting Contemporary Photobooks
- Kasia Leousis – poster, The Materials Laboratory as a Teaching Tool
- Kathy Edwards – moderator, Postcards from the Edge VIII: I Didn’t Know Urban Planning was About...

41st Annual Chapter Meeting, Atlanta, Georgia
Attendees: 31 present
November 12-13, 2016
Business meeting and presentations took place in the Peachtree Branch of the Atlanta Public Library. Five very informative Lightning Round talks were given by Caroline Barratt and Courtney Baron (University of Georgia), Breanne Crumpton (North Caroline Museum of Art), Lee Sorenson (Duke University), Ann Lindell (University of Florida) and Lindsey Reynolds (Birmingham Museum of Art). The afternoon was spent at Emory University touring the Carlos Museum, the highlight of which was the current exhibition, “Indigenous Beauty: Masterworks of American Indian Art from the Diker Collection.” The second half of the Emory visit included a tour the newly renovated Rose Library with host Kim Collins as guide. The day ended with a delightful reception held at the home of Sandra Still.

On Friday morning the group had a choice of two interesting options – members could to on a guided tour of the ACA Library and Artists Book Collection at the Savannah College of Art and Design or take in the current exhibits and permanent collection of the High Museum of Art. The afternoon session began with four 20 minute presentations by D. Courtney McLeland (University of Florida), Erin Dickey, Elizabeth Grab and Kelsey Moen (UNC-Chapel Hill), Olivia Miller (Greensboro College) and Patricia Gimenez, Stephanie Grimm and Katy Parker (Savannah School of Art and Design). Following these, Vamp and Tramp gave a presentation on artist’s books and provided of fascinating showcase of examples in their current inventory. The conference activities finished up with a trip to Art On the Beltline, and a dutch dinner at the Ponce City Market food hall.

ARLIS/NA Strategic Plan
Goal I: Articulate New Directions and Identity for the Profession: Provide opportunities for members to participate in shaping the role of the profession in the changing environment of art information and scholarship;
  • The fall chapter meeting provided opportunities for members to present their activities and initiatives through paper presentations. We encouraged students to attend and present by soliciting lightning round talks as well as the 20 minute sessions. The informal Mentoring Program continues to provide new professionals and students with support and learning opportunities.

Goal III: Create Stronger Leadership through Promotion, Cooperation and Advocacy: Promote active chapter involvement as a vital stepping stone towards future societal leadership;
  • The chapter is currently working on initial plans for the ARLIS/NA 2017 Annual Conference in New Orleans. Promotional announcements will be given out and a meeting has be set up with the Seattle planning committee to gather input and information needed for the intensive planning period between now and February 2017.
