Chapter Meetings:

Kansas City, Missouri, October 19-20, 2017
Met for dinner in Kansas City the night of October 19th. On October 20th we met at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art. We conducted a business meeting and had the following presentations:

- History of the University of Nebraska Lincoln presentation by Kay Logan-Peters
- Oh My Gosh, It’s a Bosch! Presented by Rima Girnius, Associate Curator, European Painting & Sculpture
• PechaKucha – research, collections, programs, new initiatives presented by ARLIS/CP members
• In the ARTchives: Archival Initiatives at the Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art, presented by Tara Laver, Archivist for The Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art

We later traveled to the Kansas City Art Institute Crossroads Gallery: Center for Contemporary Practice for a tour.
