The ARLIS/NA Collection Development Special Interest Group met at the 45th Annual Conference in New Orleans on Tuesday, February 7, 2017, from 8:00 – 9:00 AM.

At this meeting the role of Coordinator for the group was transferred from Paula Gabbard (Columbia University) to Mary Wassermann (Philadelphia Museum of Art).

Topics of discussion included acquisition and management issues related to e-books and other born digital materials, private collection catalogues, and a short presentation by antiquarian bookseller Ray Smith.

The minutes for the meeting were posted on the CDSIG blog site.

In addition to coordinators Paula Gabbard and Mary Wassermann, eight CDSIG members contributed entries to the blog throughout the year, Leslie Abrams, Susan Flanagan, V. Heidi Hass, Mariza Morin, Barbara Opar, Rose Orcutt, Christina Peter, and Mary Seem.
