CHAPTER HIGHLIGHTS

- The ARLIS/NA Southern California Chapter has held 4 programs in 2018. All programs were organized by the Vice-Chair. Highlights include: The Fall Business Meeting which consisted of a tour of the UCLA Film & TV Archive, The CalArts Library, talk by Kathy Carbone, lecturer and researcher in the Department of Information Studies at UCLA, on "Critical Interventions: Contemporary Art Practice in the Archive", and a reception; Web Archiving workshop organized by Mary Haberle, Internet Archive, and hosted by LACMA’s Art + Technology Lab; and a sold out, exclusive behind the scenes tour of the Broad Museum by Vicki Gambill, Director of Collections Management.
The Chapter’s social media presence has continued to grow under the Web Editor, Karly Wildenhaus, who has been regularly posting updates, upcoming programs, and job opportunities on the chapter’s website, along with Twitter and Instagram. In addition, Karly has also researched and implemented a new membership portal via TidyHQ to streamline the registration and renewal process for new and existing members.

Board member, Jennifer Kishi, received a generous donation of 28 art and design posters. Currently in the process of setting up to fundraise and sell via local online auction to take place during the 2019 annual conference.
