Meeting began with an introduction by Stacy Brinkman, Chair of PDC

Then followed by general introductions to new and ongoing members of PDC committee and the two subcommittees of Mentoring and Education

Discussed conference activities sponsored by PDC

- Rachel Resnik reported on the mentoring workshop and discussed plans for virtual mentoring
- Maggie Portis updated the committee regarding conference networking and the New Voices Panel

Updates from Education Subcommittee provided by Heather Koopmans. Discussed recent successes and future endeavors for chats and webinars.

Reported that the internship roster is still in the process of being updated

Discussed the new strategic plan in regards to PDC projects and responsibilities

- Stacy Brinkman shared documents detailing new PDC duties in relation to the ARLIS strategic plan
- Key areas to focus on:
  - Develop mid-career mentoring
  - Increase collaboration within PDC, within ARLIS, and with other library associations

Group then divided into three sub-groups (PDC council, Subcommittees for Mentoring and Education) for further discussion. During these meetings, each group discussed projects that would support the strategic plan.

The three groups then reconvened for closing remarks from Stacy Brinkman