BiblioTreka: Idea to Implementation
The Do’s and Don’ts of Bicycling

DO: Always wear a helmet.
DON’T: Ride with your helmet attached to a bag as opposed to on your head—that just looks ridiculous.

DO: Wear closed-toed shoes while cycling.
DON’T: Ride the BiblioTreka barefoot.

DO: Inspect BiblioTreka to ensure nothing is loose and it is safe to ride.
DON’T: Ride the bike if any part of it is loose, missing, tampered with.

DO: Use proper hand signals to turn.
DON’T: "Look, ma, no hands!"

DO: Use front and rear lights and wear light/bright colors for night riding.
DON’T: Wear all black for night riding.

DO: Obey traffic laws and red lights.
DON’T: Speed.

DO: Always lock BiblioTreka securely to a bike rack.
DON’T: Expect it to be there when you return if you don’t...

DO: Ride on the right side of the street.
DON’T: Think other cyclists won’t judge you if you ride against traffic.

DO: Be fully aware of your surroundings and other vehicles/bikes.
DON’T: Listen to headphones/talk on the phone/text.

DO: Use extreme caution and good judgment.
DON’T: Ride BiblioTreka in high traffic or unsafe situations.

DO: Try to avoid potholes and other hazardous obstructions in the road.
DON’T: Swerve into traffic or a parked car.

—RIDE WITH CARE—

In consideration of being permitted to participate in any way in Read/Write Library Bicycle activities I, __________________________,

1. Acknowledge that there are serious risks and danger of bodily harm, including death, while bicycling and I take full responsibility for my own safety and well being while riding the BiblioTreka.

2. Acknowledge that I have been given safety guidelines and training and am expected to adhere to these guidelines and training.

3. Release Read/Write Library and all founders, volunteers, and affiliates from all liability, claims, expenses that may incur as a result of my participation in Read/Write Bicycle activities.
