Interviews with Texas Artists

In this first-ever book of interviews with visual artists from across Texas, more than 60 artists reflect on topics from seminal influences and inspirations to their common engagement with found materials. Beyond the art itself, no source is more primary to understanding art and artist than his or her words.

Since 2010, Craig Bunch has interviewed 64 of Texas' finest artists with the intention of compiling questions and responses into a substantial, illustrated book. Artists have responded with honesty, clarity, and—naturally—great insight into their own work. None of these interviews has been previously published, even in part. Incorporating a striking illustration of each artist's work, these absorbing self-examinations will stand collectively as a reference of lasting value.

ROBERT CRAIG BUNCH is Assistant Librarian at the McNay Art Museum in San Antonio, where his responsibilities include acquisitions, collection development, and outreach. Previously, he had a 25 year career in public schools, as both a teacher and a librarian. His Master's in Library and Information Science is from the University of Texas at Austin. He also holds graduate degrees from Sam Houston State University and the University of Houston.
