Art Information Commons: A Strategy and a Thing

- 3-year planning grant from the Andrew W. Mellon Foundation
  - 3 staff: Project Manager; Taxonomist; System Developer
- Transformation of the Library and Archives
- An endeavor to help define how information about individual works of art in our collection can be linked to related contextual information
- Collaborate to leverage the interrelated nature of our processes, practices, and systems and move forward existing information work across the museum
  - Laboratory: experiment, prototype, explore
